140300026 03/24/14 Burglary – Victim reported that he stored his boat at Inlet Harbor Marina. Sometime between 03/12 and 03/19 someone had entered his boat and took some navigational equipment. Victim reported that he discovered the theft on 03/19 but did not report the theft until the 24th due to the fact he was leaving Town on business. Victim has been unable to locate any identifying numbers which would assist us. Regular pawn checks have been made for similar items with no success. Case is inactive pending new leads.

140600035 06/30/14 Theft – Daytona Beach PD contacted victim via telephone to advise that they had recovered his boat in their jurisdiction. Victim advised that he did not know it was stolen and he had parked it at a local boat dock where he paid fees for storage. Daytona Beach PD advised that the boat had been reported as having been abandoned after witnesses had observed two Latino males park it and begin taking some electronics off of it. PIPD went to the storage area within Town and secured video footage of the boat being taken by a w/m and w/f in a white Dodge Pickup. The boat has been recovered and is in working condition however the trailer is still missing. Several items totaling less than $1000 were found missing. Pawn checks have been negative to duty and no identifying information is available. Case is inactive pending new leads.

140700040 07/28/14 Theft – Victim reported that a bicycle was stolen from a condominium parking area on S. Atlantic. Said locked under the stairwell near the victims condo. Video surveillance revealed a w/m in a midsized extended cab pickup truck in the area of the theft. Unidentified suspect could be seen with a bicycle in the bed of the truck. Checks of pawns and craigslist were negative at this time. No new leads are available and the video is to distorted to make a positive identification. Case is inactive pending new leads.

STATS

140800024 08/17/14 Fraud/Theft – Victim reports that someone stole his credit cards and had made numerous charges throughout Volusia County. We have confirmed dates and times of usage and have collected up all video evidence available. A suspect was identified and finally located through her probations officer. The suspect was arrested for credit card fraud as well as violation of probation. Case closed by arrest.

140800035 08/23/14 Theft (Grand) – Victim went out to Disappearing Island on a kayak and left it parked on the beach by the water. She left the area for about 20 minutes to go swimming and when she returned the kayak was gone. No one in the area saw who took it. We have obtained photos of the Kayak and disseminated to other agencies. We have also have met with other agencies who are working similar cases and there is a group of suspects currently stealing Kayaks and Surfboards. A check of pawns in the area has been negative at this time. Case continued.

140800043 08/26/14 Burglary (Conveyance) – Victim reports that someone entered his vehicle during the overnight hours. He advised that the door was not locked and when he went to the vehicle in the morning he noticed that the door was ajar. He found that his glove compartment had been ransacked however he found that nothing was missing from the vehicle. This case is related to case 140800044.

140800044 08/26/14 Burglary (Conveyance) – Victim lives next door to the victim in the above case. As officers were investigating the above case they were contacting neighbors to find any witnesses. When the victim was contacted he went and checked his vehicle and found that it had been entered. He advised that the vehicle had not been locked and the only thing missing was loose change totaling less than $5.00. There was no physical evidence in either case. We have interviewed a suspect in both cases however no admission has been made. Case continued.

140900018 09/08/14 Criminal Mischief – Victim reports someone broke three windows on her residence. A pallet of ceramic tiles was found on the side of the house and it appears that some tiles were used to break the windows. Case has been assigned for follow-up however no physical evidence was available. Case continued.

140900031 09/18/14 Burglary – Victim reported that someone entered an estate residence which she and her sisters have been trying to sell. She reports that two rings were stolen from the residence. There was no forced entry found and according to the victim the rings had been left one month prior. No other items were taken and the rings were found to be the only items insured. All angles to this case are being investigated. Pawn checks are negative at this time. Case continued.

140900039 09/21/14 Grand Theft – Victim reports that someone had stolen a jet ski from his business. He described the suspect as a w/m with blonde hair. The suspect jumped on the jet ski while the victim was distracted and headed north on the intercoastal waterway. The jet ski was recovered further up the waterway within two days. A suspect was identified in this case however the victim refused to prosecute. Case closed exceptionally.
