131100008 11/05/13 Theft – Victim reports that a wireless router was stolen from a mail room at a local condominium. Victim advised that the router was left by mailboxes and taken by an individual who is unknown. Investigation on case 131200017 may find that this case is related. We have the serial number on missing router and are attempting to match with possible pawns in area. Case Continued.

131200002 12/02/13 Theft – Three victims report that mail has been stolen from their mailboxes. In each case they observed suspects taking mail from the mail box. The pieces taken had financial information in them. Contact was made with numerous banks in area and several checks that were stolen were bleached and attempted to be cashed by suspects. Jurisdictions where the attempted cashing took place were contacted and all information turned over to them for possible charges. As the majority of the crimes associated with this incident occurred in another jurisdiction this case is turned over to another agency for processing.

131200017 12/22/13 Theft – This case was opened as a suspicious incident when several open and empty boxes were found in the 4300 blk of S. Atlantic. Investigation found that they had been delivered to the same condominium however different victims. Packing slips were tracked to individual owners and found that the items had been stolen from the mail room of this condo. Video surveillance identified a suspect for this incident. PIPD has been matching up owners with the found packages and all are willing to prosecute. As the victims have come in we have assigned different case numbers to each victim. As of this date we are preparing felony charges against suspect. This case is related to cases: 131200018, 131200019, 131200020, 131200023, 131200028. Case is continued.

140100014 01/13/14 Theft – Convenience store reported individual was observed shoplifting and left the store with the items before they could stop him. Video surveillance was reviewed and observed a W/M in his late teens or early twenties taking a package of Red Bull from a shelf near the front door. He then runs out the front door and turns south where he disappears from view. Photos of the suspect have been reviewed and to date not identified. The store will prosecute if identified. Case Continued.

140200030 02/24/14 Theft – Victim reports that he had been out fishing and pulled into the dock at Inlet Harbor. An individual had shown an interest in his fishing gear that he had been using. The victim went to the restaurant for a few hours and when he returned he found that the gear was missing from the boat. The victim advised that he had done some investigating on his own and found that someone had contacted a fishing shop trying to sell a similar rod and reel. We are checking phone records to identify the owner of the telephone used to call the shops. Case Continued.
