150600019 06/11/2015 Theft – Victims rode over to an acquaintances residence on two bicycles. They left them at the bottom of the driveway and went inside the structure. When exiting, a couple of hours later, they found that the bicycles had been taken. There is no suspect information and no witnesses to the crime. There are no leads to follow up on. Case is inactive pending new information.

150800008 08/05/15 Carbreak – Victim reported that someone broke into his vehicle by smashing out a window and several items were removed. One of the items was a purse belonging to a female who he had been out with the evening before but became separated from. When female was contacted she did not have the purse in her possession. Noise was heard from residents in the area of laughing as if young people were in the parking lot where the vehicle was located. Fingerprint evidence was recovered from the scene and to date have not matched up with anyone listed in the system. Elimination prints found that the fingerprint did not come from the victim or the female owner of the purse. Case Continued.

150800016 08/06/15 Burglary – Victim reported that they left for the beach and spent several hours. When they returned two gold rings were found missing from a dresser along with a small amount of cash from a purse in the kitchen. Next to the rings were a wallet (with cash) and a cell phone which were undisturbed. There was no forced entry to the residence and no other articles were disturbed in the residence. As the property Is a rental there is the possibility of other keys which are unknown. A maintenance worker was questioned however denied knowledge. Checks of the pawn data base were negative for the rings which did have identifying markings. Case continued.

STATS

150800022 08/09/15 Theft (petit) – Suspect stole several items from a local convenience store and before he could be stopped by employees he left the area. Video surveillance of the suspect was enhanced and given to all patrol units as it was possible the suspect was a local construction worker. Two days later he was identified walking the streets in Daytona Beach Shores by the Ponce Inlet Chief of Police. The convenience store declined to press charges. The suspect was trespassed from the property and his information was stored for future identification. Case closed exceptionally.

150800049 08/21/15 Theft (Grand) – Victim reported that two commercial fishing rods and reels were taken off of his charter fishing boat and pawned at a shop in South Daytona. The suspect was identified as a former employee who was currently in a drug rehabilitation program out of state. A hold was placed on the stolen property and fingerprint evidence confirmed that the suspect was the person who pawned the items. The victim did not wish to press charges due to the suspect's drug problem. Arrangements were made and the victim did recover his property. Case is closed exceptionally.

150800052 08/26/15 Burglary – Victim reports that someone broke into his residence and drank half a bottle of alcohol then left the residence. Numerous pieces of jewelry were left untouched and no other items were disturbed. The victim has been seeing a female who lives behind him and states that she is an alcoholic and he thought she broke in to just drink his alcohol. She was questioned and denied the charges. The bottle was processed and numerous smudges were found. As of this time the case is suspicious. Case continued.
