COMMENTS

150800008 08/05/15 Carbreak – Victim reported that someone broke into his vehicle by smashing out a window and several items were removed. One of the items was a purse belonging to a female who he had been out with the evening before but became separated from. When female was contacted she did not have the purse in her possession. Noise was heard from residents in the area of laughing as if young people were in the parking lot where the vehicle was located. Fingerprint evidence was recovered from the scene and to date have not matched up with anyone listed in the system. Elimination prints found that the fingerprint did not come from the victim or the female owner of the purse. As of this time the fingerprint has been entered into AFIS and should a match occur we will followup. No new evidence at this time. Case Inactive.

150800016 08/06/15 Burglary – Victim reported that they left for the beach and spent several hours. When they returned two gold rings were found missing from a dresser along with a small amount of cash from a purse in the kitchen. Next to the rings were a wallet (with cash) and a cell phone which were undisturbed. There was no forced entry to the residence and no other articles were disturbed in the residence. As the property is rental there is the possibility of other keys which are unknown. A maintenance worker was questioned however denied knowledge. Checks of the pawn data base were negative for the rings which did have identifying markings. Case inactive pending new leads.

150800052 08/26/15 Burglary – Victim reports that someone broke into his residence and drank a half a bottle of alcohol then left the residence. Numerous pieces of jewelry were left untouched and no other items were disturbed. The victim has been seeing a female who lives behind him and states that she is an alcoholic and he thought she broke in to just drink his alcohol. She was questioned and denied the charges. The bottle was processed and numerous smudges were found. This case was changed to a suspicious incident due to the nature and several inconsistent statements from the victim. Should new information be found the case will be reopened. Case Inactive.

150900028 09/19/15 Theft – Victim reports that sometime during a three week period someone entered her condominium and removed jewelry from a jewelry box on her dresser. She advised that she always keeps her condo locked and there was no forced entry. The only person who would have been in the residence may have been a pest control employee who was escorted by maintenance from the condo. A check of the pawn data base was negative for the missing jewelry. Case Continued.

150900037 09/26/15 Burglary – Victim reports that while doing a remodel of a residence someone entered the garage and took several items including chainsaws and generators. The victim reported that they had recently fired an employee however did not have his full name. A check of pawns has been negative at this time. The fired employee has been identified however at this time there is nothing linking him to the burglary. Case Continued.
